SALISBURY, N. C., June 26 .- A baseball game to be played by Salisbury Lodge, K. of P., against Rowan Lodge of the same order, has been arranged for June 28th, and promises to be of great interest.

Each of the two lodges has some old-time players of note among their membership, and there should be a hot contest on the diamond. Among those who will participate are a number of prominent lawyers and other professional men in Salisbury, who vielded the bat at the State university and other schools years ago.
